

Get Involved

Becoming a part of The Arc's movement takes on many forms, and your commitment to helping us create opportunity for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities can be expressed in many ways. There are many ways to connect with The Arc - from making monetary donations to taking action or by joining our community.

More ways to give to The Arc

Donating Physical Items?

If you want to donate physical items such as clothing, furniture, etc., please contact us.

The Arc believes that all people with intellectual and developmental disabilities are defined by their own strengths, abilities and inherent value, not by their disability.

The Arc believes that people with intellectual and developmental disabilities belong in the community and have fundamental moral, civil and constitutional rights to be fully included and actively participate in all aspects of society.

Benefits of Membership

The Arc offers special membership rates for individuals, self-advocates (individuals with a disability) and families which entitle you to a variety of benefits, foremost of which is your connection to The Arc. Also receive a quarterly newsletter, bi-monthly e-newsletter, and information about The Arc's advocacy activities, programs and events. In addition, be eligible for other member benefits in the form of resources and support, services, and discounts. Contact TheArc@ArcMidlands.org to learn more.

Achieve with Us

Your support makes The Arc's powerful voice even stronger as we address issues such as residential support, employment, and housing. The Arc is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit: Federal Tax ID: 46-3678078
